Want a job? Paul Revere, right, is scouting for new Raiders to fill the blank spots in his group.

A Lot of Scene Splitting

By SCOTT HOLTZMAN

Eeny-Meeny-Miney-Mo

Where did all The Raiders go?

When they get to town we'll know

Which ones were the first to blow . . .

This should be the first time anyone will read this hot flash anywhere in the world. It comes from a very strong inside source. At least three of The Raiders are checking out.

Paul Revere has already found a handsome guitar player out of Atlanta by the name of Scott. Others will be added soon. We shall see when they arrive here on June 10 whether or not my sources are correct. I sincerely hope not, because I hate to see a group really make it and then break up.

The Spencer Davis Group, riding high on the worldwide charts with a great record, are also splitting. Steve Winwood is exiting with his brother, Muff, and forming a new group called Traffic. That doesn't leave much for The SDG since Steve was lead singer, guitar, organ and piano. Muff played bass. Sorry to see that.

On the local scene, String might be leaving The Fanatics. He goes down to his draft board Monday to find out.

Rocky and Tommy have exited The 13th Floor Elevators, leaving them with no lead singer.

All is not bad news, though. The newsounds groove-in is on and it's going to be some show, with your favorite groups stacked up to be a real weekend bash. I'm told that the lighting and direction are going to knock Houston on its newsounds ear.

Lots of people are planning to make all three shows. You'll have to catch all of the Big Three. The fever tree will play the Saturday matinee only. Neal Ford and The Fanatics will play the Sunday matinee only and The Coastliners will play

Sunday night only. Check your Post every day for ads on your favorite groups. You have to look hard, because they might be anywhere.

Steve Lundy is out of the hospital and resting up at home in Tyler. Dunaway went up this past week end and says Steve is in good spirits.

Mac Hudson, who has done a great job of filling in for Steve, is back on the noon to three shift. Jerry Thomas, the guy who swore to play "When I Was Young" by Eric Burdon and the Animals once an hour until it hit, is the new Lundy replacement and should get some of the recognition he deserves on this shift.

It's great to see Paul Berlin pull out "Let Me Tell You Babe" by Nat Cole and break it. I picked it a year ago and no one would play it. I still think it's a hit. It took someone of Paul Berlin's stature to get it heard. Watch it closely.

Bet Jim Hunter wishes he'd gone to Vegas and left Joe Ford to do his show. Seems Joe won $600 at Keno. That's the kind of vacation I'd like to have. See you at the groove-in.

SCOTT'S SNEAK OF THE WEEK: "Let's Live for Today" by The Bokes (RCA). Watch for it on The Chuck Dunaway Show and The Larry Kane Show.
